

SOUR STATIC

ELECTRONIC PRESS KIT | 2026

ABOUT

Sour Static is a hard rock and industrial rock project created by songwriter Drew Patterson, built around dirty guitars, machine-driven rhythms, raw vocals, massive hooks, and story-driven songwriting. Drawing from industrial rock, sleaze, gothic rock, alternative metal, and beyond, each song explores its own world while remaining part of the same loud, dirty identity.

CREATIVE PROCESS

Patterson writes the songs and directs the project through a hybrid creative process that incorporates his real voice with generative AI technology in the production and performance process. Human written. Human directed. Hybrid creation.

HARD ROCK / INDUSTRIAL ROCK

A dirty, aggressive hard rock and industrial rock track built around heavy guitars, machine-driven rhythms, raw vocals, and massive hooks, telling a twisted story of consumption, revenge, and the shifting roles of predator and prey.

DEBUT ALBUM

Sour Static's self-titled debut album is planned for October 2026, expanding the world introduced by Gluttony through a collection of distinct stories tied together by the project's sound and identity.
